

S.A. KUGEL INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL FOR SOCIOLOGY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

holds its XXXIII Session on September 20-22, 2017

SCIENCE POLICY: METRICS, ACTORS, AND PRACTICES

The annual session blends together both conference and summer school formats. We encourage researchers, lecturers, research fellows, young scientists, and students to participate in either or both of these formats,

In particular, the session encourages academic papers concerned with the following themes and related questions:

- Global trends in science policy
- State, business and academy relations
- Academic mobility and global careers
- Scientific diaspora and academic networks
- Challenges and problems of scientometrics
- Methodology in science and technology studies
- Russian science policy: past, present, and future
- Rankings and ratings of scientists in local and global contexts
- Science in St Petersburg: main features and problems

The deadline for submissions is May 10, 2017, via online form
